World Class Medical Tourism Destination

World Class Medical Tourism Destination

Quality of healthcare treatment

- Highly qualified medical specialists, trained internationally and locally
- Multi disciplinary, full spectrum of services and specialists
- Wide spectrum of choice through the close network of cross referrals
- High success rate and consistent clinical outcomes with treatments
- Advanced treatment technology

Affordable of services

- Medical treatment
- Travel and accommodation
- Favourable currency exchange

Exciting tourism destination

- George Town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site
- Penang Hill and its surrounding area is a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve, encompassing the scenic Penang National Park, the Air Itam Dam and Teluk Bahang Dam
- Wide selection of hotels, from international brands to quaint boutique resorts
- A food paradise with top rated food such as the CNN acclaimed "laksa", char koay teow, and nasi kandar
- A haven for durian lovers, a unique, thorny fruit that is especially tasty
- Wide variety of shopping malls with local and branded products

Ease of communication

- As a former British colony, English is widely spoken, signs are in that language
- Bahasa Malaysia is very similar to Bahasa Indonesia, giving rise to familiarity
- Mandarin, and Chinese dialects like Hokkien and Cantonese are commonly used

Warm, hospitable local culture with something happening all year round

- A multi-cultural blend of traditions, festivals and sporting events taking place every month, such as the Penang International Dragon Boat Race, George Town Festival, Thai Pusam, the Penang Bridge International Marathon, Penang International Food Festival and many more.
